

Will my creditors stop calling me?

Yes. Our office will deal with your creditors. By law, actions against you must cease when a bankruptcy is filed. This includes garnishees, judgements and other legal actions. This does not apply to secured creditors such as banks holding, for example, a lien on a car.